ABSTRACT

This report presents data on public school dropouts in grade levels 7 and 12 in Texas public middle schools and high schools for 1989-90. The data are presented in the aggregate and by grade, and with projected cross-sectional dropout rates for each of those grades for the next 5 years. The information was provided through the Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS). Section I presents state summaries including summary counts, characteristics of dropouts, dropouts by grade, dropouts by ethnicity, dropouts by reasons given, and with a projection of cross-sectional and longitudinal dropout rates. Section II presents district groups in two tables: one tables shows data for groups of districts with the counts of dropouts, annual rates, and an estimated longitudinal rate; and the other table shows summary counts of dropouts by ethnic group for the same district groups. Section III provides a table of data for each school district in Texas indicating the number of dropouts by ethnic group, the annual dropout rate, and the estimated longitudinal rate. An appendix details PEIMS data standards for reporting dropout student data. In all, there are eight tables and two graphs. (JB)

The Honorable Ann Richards,
Governor of Texas
The Honorable Bob Bullock,
Lieutenant Governor of Texas
The Honorable Gibson D. Lewis,
Speaker of the House

In March 1991, The State Plan to Reduce the Dropout Rate was submitted as required under Texas Education Code §11.205(d). Compilation of dropout statistics was set to follow after tabulation of final data.

This report includes the current dropout rate of students in grade levels seven through twelve in the aggregate and by grade, and projected cross-sectional dropout rates for each of those grades for the next five years, assuming no action is taken by the state to reduce the rate.

Detailed information on the number of dropouts in public schools in Texas was provided through the Public Education Information Management System (PEIMS). The statistics contained in this report contain the best available information at the current time regarding dropouts in Texas.

STATE SUMMARY

Summary Counts

School districts reported a total of 70,040 dropouts for the 1989-90 school year as of June 20, 1991. This represents a 5.14 percent annual dropout rate (see Table 1). Districts contacted in the process of compiling this year's report attributed improved record keeping along with individual student follow-up for much of the reduction in dropout rates. In general, some major progress toward overall dropout prevention and recovery appears to be evidenced by the reduction of 12,285 dropouts from 1988-89.

Table 2, on the following page, summarizes dropout counts by grade level and by ethnicity for the state. This table also includes the student enrollment counts as reported on the 1989-90 Fall Survey of Pupils in Membership.

Characteristics of Dropouts

Of the total number of dropouts, 42,162 (60.2 percent) dropped out during the regular school year, 20,138 (28.8 percent) dropped out over the summer after having been promoted to the next grade level, and 7,202 (10.3 percent) dropped out over the summer after having not been promoted. The remaining 538 (0.8 percent) is comprised of twelfth grade students who failed the TEAMS exit test and did not return to graduate. These percentages are very similar to 1988-89 figures. Male dropouts are more numerous at 38,249 (54.6 percent) than female dropouts at 31,791 (45.4 percent), (see Table 3).

Overall, total dropouts have declined in all categories. However, dropouts enrolled in special education as a percent of total dropouts increased from 9.0 percent (8,251) in 1988-89 to 9.4 percent (6,570). Of the total number of dropouts, 18,131 (25.9 percent) were eligible to participate in the Free and Reduced Meal program and it is estimated that 50,607 (72.3 percent) dropouts were not on an appropriate grade level based on reported age.

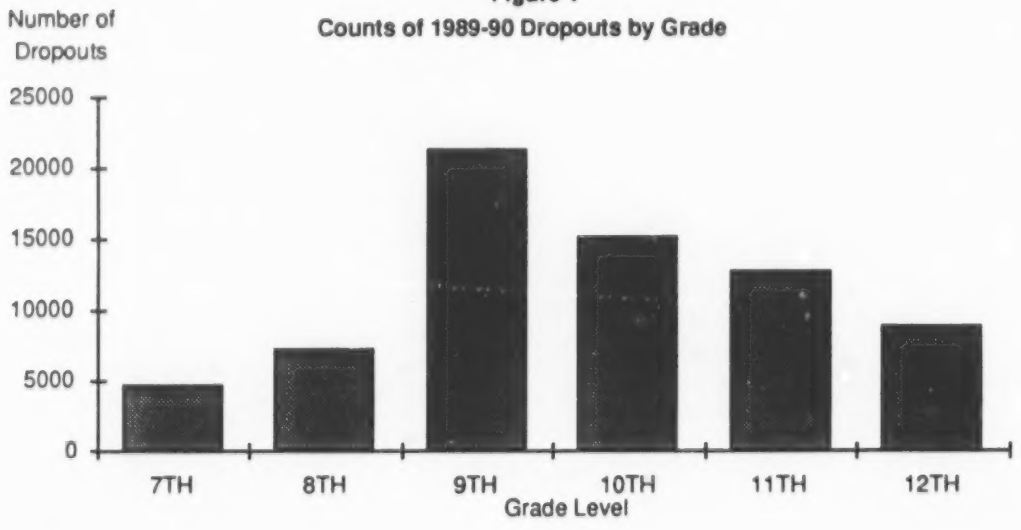
Dropouts by Grade

Figure 1 shows that most dropouts (30 percent) leave school in the 9th grade. Students leaving the 10th and 11th grades account for an additional 22 and 18 percent respectively, (see Figure 1).

Figure 1
Counts of 1989-90 Dropouts by Grade



Dropouts by Ethnicity

Minority students comprise approximately 48 percent of the total grade 7-12 student population, but account for almost 65 percent of the dropouts, (see Figure 2). Dropout rates within ethnic groups are highest among American Indians (9.0 percent) followed by Hispanics (7.2 percent) and African-Americans (6.7 percent), (see Table 1). Figure 2 represents ethnic totals as a percent of total dropouts.

Reasons

Individual reasons cited for dropping out once again provide insight and understanding of dropouts in Texas. Reasons for dropping out were provided for only 26,183 students. The most frequent reason (11,033) was poor attendance, (see Table 4). Additionally, 3,458 dropped out to pursue a job, 2,112 because they felt they were too old, and 1,810 dropped out into a non-state approved GED program.

Projection of Cross-Sectional and Longitudinal Dropout Rates

A requirement of the statute regarding dropout reporting is the projection of cross-sectional and longitudinal dropout rates for each of the next five years, assuming no action is taken by the state to reduce the rate. While trends in the annual rate of dropouts seem to indicate some improvement, it is not clear that such improvement will continue. Rates for the demographic subgroups are therefore assumed to remain at the levels indicated in Table 1. Table 5 presents the estimated rates for each grade level for the next five years if the rates for each subgroup remain constant at each grade level, indicating a slight worsening of the problem over the next five years if no change in rates takes place.

To project longitudinal rates, the same basic assumption that 1989-90 rates will remain constant is made. For ease of calculation, the longitudinal rate is calculated by subtracting the annual rate as a percent from 1.00, and raising the resulting retention rate to the sixth power. This has approximately the same effect as applying the grade-specific retention rates to a hypothetical population and then aging the population across all six grades. Table 5 presents these projected longitudinal rates.

It must be noted that the estimated longitudinal rate is only an estimate for comparison purposes, and does not purport to track students longitudinally. Many factors, such as student mobility, repeated exits and entries to the school system, and long-term outcomes for individual students, would have an impact a true longitudinal rate.

The implementation of the State Dropout Prevention Program represents significant action to reduce the magnitude of the problem. Projections for the longitudinal rates if implementation of the Dropout Prevention Program takes place are also shown in Table 5. These projections indicate a significantly reduced longitudinal rate for 1995-96.

PEIMS Data Standards for Reporting Dropout Student Data

DROPOUT STUDENT DATA
Record Type 201

Definition of a dropout

A student shall be reported as a dropout for a school year if the individual is absent for a period of 30 or more consecutive school days: 1) without approved excuse or documented transfer from the public secondary school (grades 7-12) in which he or she enrolled, or 2) if he fails to reenroll during the first 30 consecutive school days in the following semester or school year without completion of a high school program. Documentation for approved excuses or transfers will be under standards set by the commissioner of education.

Dropout Reporting Period

This report will include the dropouts identified between September 1989 and August 1990. It will also include those students who fail to reenroll during the first 30 consecutive school days in the following year.

YES: include in dropout count

Students who drop out (by the definition)

Students who are expelled with no evidence of entry into another state-approved school or program (to continue the student's secondary education)

Students who enter the military illness

Students from special education and other special, ungraded or state-approved alternative programs who drop out (by the definition)

Students who leave school and enter a program not qualifying as an elementary/secondary school (i.e., cosmetology school)

NO: do not include in dropout count

Students who die

Students who drop out (by the definition) before 7th grade entry

Students who are out of school only for temporary periods with an approved excuse, e.g. by suspension, extended

Students showing regular attendance at a state-approved alternative program (full or part-time), in which the degree conferred is the high school diploma or GED certificate

YES: include in dropout count	NO: do not include in dropout count
Students who are enrolled in the Migrant Student Record Transfer System (MSRTS) during the year in which they leave school and whose whereabouts are unknown, and who do not have another school enrollment recorded on their MSRTS Education Record	Students who are enrolled in the Migrant Student Record Transfer System (MSRTS) during the year in which they left school, and who have a subsequent school enrollment on their MSRTS Education Record.
Students who leave school between terms, including summer leavers transferred to:	Students known by acceptable documentation to have - a public school - a nonpublic school or other state-approved educational program, that is, a program that continues a student's secondary education (i.e., adult education or another state-approved alternative program) - home schooling Students who move to, or are placed in, another grade level Students who enroll in college early Students known to be transferred/shifted to another public institution, e.g., prison, juvenile institution, mental institution Students assigned to a state-approved educational program in a substance abuse correctional center

- State-approved educational programs are those provided by the accredited agencies listed in the Texas School Directory, as well as the Adult Education Cooperatives.

- Excused absences are defined in TAC 129.61, Requirements for Student Attendance Accounting for State Funding Purposes, and TAC 129.62, Court-Related Students.

- Grade level of dropout refers to the grade of enrollment. Students who complete a grade, but do not return to school the following year, will be counted as summer dropouts with the grade level shown as the last grade completed.

- Acceptable documentation of transfer consists of either a documented request for transcript or a written signed statement from the parent or guardian. Students who are married (or 18 years or older) may sign their own statement of transfer. Acceptable documentation also includes verification by the superintendent or authorized representative that the child has been enrolled in a nonpublic school or another state-approved program or institution.

- Districts must use the SSN or state-approved alternative ID numbers when reporting dropouts.

- Dropouts are counted only once, and only for the year in which they left school. If a student fails to return when school begins in the fall, but does return by the PEIMS as-of date, the student is not counted as a dropout.

- CAMPUS-ID refers to the identification number of the campus in which the student was last enrolled. If a student completes the eighth grade at a middle school (grades 6-8), and then fails to return to school at the high school (grades 9-12) the following fall, he is shown as a dropout from the middle school.

- A 100 record must be reported along with each 201 record.

- If the district was the absorbing district in a consolidation the prior year, the district must report the dropout data for the consolidated district.

- Refer to the instructions about the use of DEMOGRAPHIC-REVISION-CONFIRMATION-CODE in the Record Type 101 discussion.
